

If you or your loved one...

- Needs short-term, in-patient care after leaving the hospital before returning home or temporary care to address pain and symptom management.
- Can no longer remain under hospital care, but needs skilled care that cannot be met in the home or another setting.
- Needs a residence if there is not sufficient family or support to manage the final days of life.
- Needs temporary respite care.

ADMISSIONS

- All admissions must be patients with Karen Ann Quinlan Hospice.
- Admissions are on a first come, first-served basis.
- Hospice Care is covered by the Medicare and Medicaid hospice benefits. Karen Ann Quinlan Hospice also works closely with private insurers to maximize hospice benefits, subject to applicable co-payments and deductibles. Private payment is also an option. Room and Board fees and charges are separate from the medical care benefit.

A New View of Hospice Care

The Karen Ann Quinlan Home for Hospice is the only free-standing in-patient provider for our area. Our facility is designed to ensure that individuals with life-limiting illnesses who are not able to return to their own homes will receive gentle end-of-life care from our exceptional clinicians. Along with emotional support for both patient and family, the center offers 10 private rooms, overlooking the Waterwheel Farm. Each room has it's own view of the stunning vistas of the Kittatiny Mountain range; providing patients a more restful stay.

Our Commitment

"I know of no greater gift to give than love, dignity and comfort on life's last journey while enriching family members with emotional, spiritual, and practical support."

- Julia Quinlan, Co-Founder and Chair of the Governing Board of Karen Ann Quinlan Hospice.

The Karen Ann Quinlan Home for Hospice is a part of the Karen Ann Quinlan Memorial Foundation and Karen Ann Quinlan Hospice, which is a not-for-profit healthcare organization and is licensed by the New Jersey Department of Health and the Pennsylvania Department of Health as a certified Medicare and Medicaid Hospice Organization and members of the National Hospice Organization and the NJ and PA Hospice Organizations. Accredited by the Community Health Accreditation Program.

With around-the-clock nursing and specialized hospice care, the Hospice Home promises a much-needed reprieve. For patients needing intensive nursing skills or urgent alleviation of pain, our Hospice Home is a pleasant, comfortable and skilled place to cope with the challenges of a life-limiting illness.

Always open to a patient's friends and family, including children, the Hospice Home offers convenience and comfort to assure peace of mind during a difficult time. Each patient's room has a private patio with comfortable furnishings and a private bath. Shared amenities include tranquil garden areas, family rooms, a meditation room, children's playroom and outdoor areas. While regular meals and snacks are available to patients at any time, a kitchen is also ready for families wishing to bring food from home.

The Karen Ann Quinlan Home for Hospice is located in Fredon, NJ
